Sabre Foundation Program in Indonesia 2005 TO 2010

June 2011
BASIC STATISTICS AND DATA

Independence declared: August 17, 1945 (after three and half centuries as a colony of the Netherlands)

Population: 242,968,342 (July 2010 est.)

Size: 735,355 sq. miles; (17,508) islands

GDP (Per capita): $4,000/year (2009 est.)

G20 Member since 2008

Religion: 86.1% Muslim

Adult Literacy rate: 94% male; 86.6% female

(Source: CIA Factbook)
Jakarta

Population of Jakarta: 8,792,000 (2008)
Shipments to Indonesia with funders noted:

2005  3 shipments  total: 20,016   FMV: $1,060,330  (DOS)
2006  1 shipment  total: 21,925   FMV: $618,822  (DOS)
2008  4 shipments  total: 61,342   FMV: $1,244,551 (Embassy of Indonesia, three; U.S. private foundation, one)
2009  4 shipments  total: 69,948   FMV: $1,340,884 (Funding: Embassy of Indonesia, three; ANCORA Foundation, one)
2010  6 shipments  total: 46,442   FMV: $2,903,000  Funding: Embassy of Indonesia, five, including two shipments for high schools; ANCORA Foundation, one: HUP, Yale and MIT titles for the new Public Policy Graduate School being developed by Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono (SBY), the President of Indonesia
The Indonesia First Lady, Ani Bambang Yudhoyono (Ibu Ani), Book Presentation Ceremony with Sabre Foundation, September 28, 2009 at The Four Seasons Hotel, Boston
Formal portrait with the First Lady, Indonesian Ambassador and Embassy staff, Head of the ANCORA Foundation, and Sabre staff and board members, The Four Seasons Hotel, Boston
Gift from the First Lady
Visit to Indonesia: November 14 – 19, 2009

Participants:
Tania Vitvitsky, Sabre Foundation
John Archibald, Sabre Foundation
James Costa, Sabre Foundation Advisory Committee
John Archibald and Tania Vitvitsky with Dr. Irid Agoes, Executive Director, Indonesia International Education Foundation (IIEF), Sabre’s NGO partner, Jakarta, November 16, 2009
Meeting in with Gita Wirjawan, Chairman, Investment Coordinating Board, Republic of Indonesia, Co-Chairman, ANCORA CAPITAL and founder of ANCORA Foundation, Jakarta, November 16, 2009
With Dr. Harris Iskandar, Secretary, Directorate General of Higher Education, Ministry of National Education, November 17, 2009
Main Library, University of Indonesia, Depok campus. Established in 1851 as a Medical School, the student population in 2008/2009 was 41,555 (40% graduate students).
Checking to see that the donated books are being used.
Some more checking.
The New Library Being Constructed at the University of Indonesia
Meeting at the SIKIB office. SIKIB: “Solidarity of Wives of United Indonesia Cabinet”, headed by the First Lady, Ibu Ani, Jakarta, November 19, 2009
SIKIB members are particularly fond of the large-format books for children. Each book is stamped before being distributed to SIKIB libraries (“smart” houses), “smart” cars, “smart” motorcycles, under the slogan:

From Smart Indonesia to Prosperous Indonesia.
Main Library, Bogor Agricultural University: Library requested titles on agriculture; veterinary science & medicine; fisheries & marine sciences; and animal husbandry.
Signing of MOU with Salman Al Farisi, Chargés d’affaires, July 2010, Sabre Foundation office
The New Library, the University of Indonesia, April 2011 visit with DIKTI staff
The New Library, University of Indonesia, April 2011
Atria Rai, CEO, Jakarta-based Ancora Foundation

Visit to the Sabre Foundation warehouse in Lawrence, MA

May 10, 2011