Visit to Kurdistan, Iraq

January 9 – 15, 2011

Institutions visited:

Two Technical Institutes in Erbil
University of Dohuk
University of Zakho

Hosted by the President of the University of Dohuk
The wall of the Citadel, a 4,000 year old settlement in Erbil
At the Citadel:

Mubarak Ben Admed Sharaf-Aldin (1169-1239)

Historian and minister of Erbil in the era of Sultan Muzafaradad.

Wrote a four-volume book on the History of Erbil.
Library staff, Technical Institute, Erbil
Dinner at Abu Shahad, Erbil, with Maha Issa, Sabre volunteer, 2009/2010
University of Dohuk

Established in 1992

17 Colleges plus a Higher Institute of Planning

12,000 undergraduates:

55.6 male

44.4 female

900 teaching staff

If interested, additional information is available about the university in the form of a PP presentation.
With Dr. Asmat Khalid, President, University of Dohuk
A view from Zawa Mountain: the city of Dohuk below.
Sabre medical books catalogued.
Library staff, Dohuk University
Dean of the Medical School
University of Dohuk,
an Ophthalmologist
with ophthalmology books donated by
Sabre
View from Amedy, a mountain-top city
Dohuk University Campus
Much room for expansion
Dean of the Business Department,
University of Zakho