Photographs from the Symbolic Book Presentation Ceremony in Jakarta with the First Lady of Indonesia, Hj. Ani Bambang Yudhoyono

October 21, 2008

Sabre Executive Director Tania Vitvitsky (second from right) meeting with IIEF Executive Director Irid Agoes (first from right), Michael Anderson, Public Affairs Counselor, U.S. Embassy (fifth from right) and Indonesian government ministers, prior to the symbolic book presentation ceremony.
The First Lady of Indonesia, Hj. Ani Bambang Yudhoyono, greeting the Minister of National Education, Bambang Sudibyo, at the Presidential Palace in Jakarta.
The First Lady (far right) receiving sample books in the symbolic book presentation ceremony.
Left to right: Agus Sartano, Head of Bureau for Planning and International Cooperation; Bambang Sudibyo, Minister of National Education; Tania Vitvitsky, Sabre Foundation Executive Director; and Hj. Ani Bambang Yudhoyono, the First Lady of Indonesia, looking at the colorful display of children’s books.
Enda Wulandari, Assistant to the Attaché for Educational and Cultural Affairs, Embassy of Indonesia (front row, second from left) with the First Lady of Indonesia and Irid Agoes, IIEF Executive Director, (front row, fourth from left) admiring the display books.

Group photograph with the First Lady of Indonesia at the Presidential Palace in Jakarta.